Activities;

Rose Human Rights Welfare Organization during the year 2012-13 worked hard to assist community members, so that they could come out from poverty stricken elements and lead a respectable life. The organization having limited resources however, managed to help a large number of beneficiaries, so that they all may get opportunity to develop themselves. Please find below the following activities carried out in brief during the year 2012-13 for your information and appreciation;

Women Development Centre;

Rose Human Rights Welfare Organization has established 03-Women Development Centres for deserving and talented young girls, married women, and women from broken families and divorced to learn skills of various natures and utilize the same to earn income which they can use for their betterment, as well as for their family in a dignified and honorable manner.

The Women Development Centres are providing training on Vocational and traditional Skills, i.e. Stitching, Cutting, Sewing of clothes of ladies, gents and children, making sofa backs, Bed Sheets, Decoration Items and traditional dresses too. Young Female Students are attending Computer Coaching Classes, and are learning computer operation system, software, hardware, program operations etc from trained staff. The centres are also providing Beautician Training Courses to girls who are un-educated or received less education, as it is becoming a highly profitable business nowadays and in rural areas the trend of makeover is taking its roots. It is very necessary to mention here that students getting help and teaching in all the professions and are also given special coaching on moral values and character building is also being done by the management and staff of the Women Development Centres.

The management is planning to increase machines, and infrastructure in Women Development Centres in Sialkot so that more deserving females could get opportunity to learn skills of various nature and my become a useful person for the family as well as for themselves too.

Literacy Program;

Rose Human Rights Welfare Organization believes that education is a tool and instrument through which we can bring effective and successful change in the lives of people and to achieve this golden dream the organization worked very hard during the past year 2012-13 to promote, support and encourage people to get education and so far we managed to get success in achieving our objectives.

During the year 2012-13 the management sponsored 1050-children, i.e. boys and girls with educational supplies, i.e. Academics Books, Copies, School Bags, Uniform and Shoes, Stationary as well as school fees were also paid by the organization.

The children are being sponsored and supported by the Executive Members of the organization with a vision to develop and uplift the poor, deserving, talented children to continue their education and become a literate person.

During the awareness programs the participants were informed about the importance and significance of Education. The participants expressed their views that poverty is the main reason which forced people / parents to hold back their children at home. However, the resource persons stressed and encouraged people and parents to send their children to schools to get education as it is the only way out of many problems especially poverty.

We are positive to include more children as time passes by as our supporters are convinced with the quality of work we are doing and it has reached to the deserving and needy children who are willing to get education. We are trying our best to encourage children to continue their efforts of getting education as it is the only way out from many problems.

Health Care Program;

Rose Human Rights Welfare Organization worked hard during 2012-13 to provide healthcare facilities to deserving community members with the help and support of its Executive Members.

During the year 2012-13 the staff under the close and dynamic supervision of its President Muhammad Ashfaq organized Free Medical Camps in district Sialkot and flood stricken areas for the rehabilitation and healthcare of flood victims. These Free Medical Camps were conducted by Renowned and Famous Sialkot Doctors who were assisted and helped out by qualified and professional Para Medical Staff.

It is recorded that a large number of patients suffering with different diseases, health care issues and ailments were treated, given guidance and medicines free of charge during free medical camps organized in Sialkot and flood stricken areas. The Medical Team professionally and actively helped and managed patients by providing them medicines as well as guiding them about preventive measures which will protect them from getting infected from fatal diseases.

The Medical Team during the Camps especially in inundated areas examined Pregnant Women especially young mothers. The older people and children were given due attention and care by the medical team as they were given medicines for the cure of their ailments and diseases.

Rose Human Rights Welfare Organization is also managing a free dispensary in on the remote area of Daska sub district of Sialkot where poor and deserving patients are provided free medicines and checkups from qualified staff.
